PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☒ To issue a warrant
☐ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the defendant has violated the following condition(s) of release:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
(w): Follow all instructions of the probation officer.	The defendant was given instructions to reside with mother in Anniston, AL. On June 29, 2007, this officer learned that the defendant is no longer residing with his mother in Anniston, AL. The defendant's whereabouts at this time are unknown.

Supervision history of defendant and actions taken by officer: On February 12, 2007, the defendant was released in this district under pretrial supervision. Upon his release, the defendant was residing with his girlfriend in Montgomery, AL. On February 16, 2007, the defendant called stating that he and his girlfriend were not getting along and that he needed to move out. Under the circumstances, the defendant was allowed to move to Anniston, AL., to reside with his mother until he could secure another residence in Montgomery, AL. The defendant underwent a mental health assessment on March 19, 2007, and it was determined that the defendant was not in need of counseling, and that he was able to obtain employment. On April 3, 2007, the defendant advised that he was not able to find a suitable residence locally, therefore, he would be returning to Anniston, AL., to reside with his mother. After several attempts by the U. S. Probation Office in the Northern District of Alabama to verify his residence in their district, it was learned that the defendant had returned to the Middle District of Alabama. However, the defendant has not notified this officer that he is no longer residing in the Northern District of Alabama and his whereabouts are currently unknown.
